

Please do not change the regulations regarding media ownership. It is not in the public interest to allow a handful of companies to essentially become the only sources of information in any market. The ownership rules have already contributed to a growing homogeneity in broadcast and print media. Further relaxing of the regulations serves only to line the pockets of media giants at the expense of our nation's diversity.